

MOLINE'S SECTION OF THE ARGUS

YOUNG MAN HELD AS AN ABDUCTOR

Fred Osborn, Aged 22, Takes Julia Willaert, 16, From Her Home, But They Don't Marry.

BOTH ARE LOCATED AT KEWANEE

He is Willing to Have Wedding, But Mother of Girl Refuses to Give Her Consent.

Fred Osborn, aged 22, whose parents live in Kewanee and who has relatives in East Moline, was arrested before Magistrate Frank Gustafson in Moline police court this morning on a charge of abduction. He faces a possible sentence of from one to ten years in the penitentiary.

Osborn a few weeks ago—engaged a room at the home of Rene Willaert, 342 Third avenue. Willaert also conducts a restaurant at that place.

The young man suddenly departed after having been there eight days. A few hours after his departure Mrs. Willaert discovered that her 16-year-old daughter Julia had left home. As reported to the police at the time, the parents suspected that Julia and Osborn had eloped.

They had, but Osborn had not married her.

Detective Henry Lebbert was assigned to the case and he traced Osborn and the girl to Galva. He learned they had spent the night there and had then gone to Kewanee.

Lebbert went to Kewanee yesterday and after a few hours located both Osborn and the girl. They were placed under arrest and brought back to Moline.

Osborn, in court this morning, said the girl had asked him to take her with him. He said he had found a job in Kewanee and he himself had lived at his sister's home. The girl, however, said they had had illegal relations.

Mother Blocks Wedding.

Osborn today wishes to marry Miss Willaert. In this event all charges would undoubtedly be dropped. The girl, on her part, was eager to have the marriage ceremony performed, but her mother flatly refused to give her consent and as the girl is not 18 a license cannot be granted without consent of the parents.

Osborn lived at our place only eight days," declared the mother. "My daughter has not known him long enough to know whether she really cares for him or not. We know nothing about the man, except what has happened within the last two weeks, and his conduct during that time certainly hasn't given us the idea that he would make a good husband for any girl."

Osborn was trapped in a falsehood by Magistrate Frank Gustafson in police court. He had declared that he did not buy the girl's ticket to Galva. He finally admitted, however, that he had given her the money to buy it with.

"What did you do that for?" questioned the magistrate.

"I don't know," evaded Osborn.

"Why didn't you buy the ticket yourself, instead of giving her the money?"

"We didn't leave Moline together."

"Didn't you take the same train to Galva?"

"Well, yes."

"Then you didn't leave here together?"

"Well, I had told her to meet me at the Twentieth street."

"Oh, you didn't leave Moline together, but you left Rock Island together?"

"Yes."

Did Not Coax Her, He Says.

"Then you were with her when she got her ticket. Why didn't you buy the ticket when you got your own? Why did you give her the money to buy her own for?"

"Well, I didn't," admitted Osborn.

"To tell the truth, judge, I bought her ticket. I just told you I didn't," he confessed, referring to his original statement that the girl had bought her own ticket.

The burden of Osborn's plea was that he hadn't coaxed the girl to go with him, but that she had coaxed him to take her.

For some time he was undecided as to whether he should waive examination, stand trial in police court or ask for a continuance to retain an attorney. He finally decided to ask for a continuance. The magistrate continued the case until Monday, holding Osborn under bonds of $2,000. He is now in the county jail in Rock Island. The girl, who was in charge of Mrs. Salisbury this morning, was taken back to her home at noon.

BRADLEY WILL OPEN FAMILY NEXT SUNDAY

Next Sunday afternoon will find Moline once more occupying a place in the world of vaudeville, the family playhouse to be opened at that time for the initial performance of the season under the direction of Uno Bradley. Mr. Bradley has himself gained prominence on the big time as an entertainer. His wife is the former Miss Edna Creutz, a well known Moline girl. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley this season failed to answer the call of the footlights. Mr. Bradley feeling assured that Moline wanted vaudeville and that the city would support a house properly managed, having leased the local theatre. Mr. Bradley will practice no economy in securing acts for his house. By offering the best vaudeville acts it is possible for him to secure, consistent with the prices charged, he expects to win the patronage of Rock Island people as well as that of the general public in Moline.

The opening bill features Fern, Richieu and Fern, who do seemingly impossible things in the way of club juggling. Tilford and Bessie will entertain with singing and talking. Holland and Jeannie offer a novel bit of entertainment, while Miller and Miller present themselves in a gymnastic novelty. Sandy Shaw needs no introduction to Moline people, as a Scotch comedian he has few equals.

REV. NELSON CALLED TO CHICAGO CHURCH

The Central Swedish conference has transferred Rev. C. J. Carlson, for three years pastor of the Swedish Methodist church of this city, to the Salem church of Chicago. Rev. Mr. Nelson will preach his farewell sermon here Sunday.

Rev. G. H. Johnson, for some time pastor of the Geneva, Ill., Swedish Methodist church, will succeed the retiring minister here, preaching his initial Moline sermon Sunday, Sept. 17.

Word of the transfer of Rev. Mr. Nelson and removal of his family from Moline is one which is the cause of regret, not only on part of members of his own congregation, but for hundreds of friends throughout the city. Three years ago Rev. Mr. Nelson came from the Austin church of Chicago, which is located only two miles from the church to which he now goes. During his ministry the Moline congregation has grown and several improvements have been made in the beautiful church edifice, among them the installation of a pipe organ.

Rev. Mr. Johnson, new pastor here, comes with years of experience in the ministry and an excellent record. He will move into the parsonage of the local church some time before Sept. 17. Transfer of the ministers was ordered at the New York gathering of the Central Swedish conference of the Methodist church, and is according to the plan in vogue of changing pastors in most churches every few years.

The Salem church, where Rev. Mr. Nelson will take up his duties, is in the northwest part of Chicago, near Humboldt park.

Young Pupils Barred.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 8.—On account of infantile paralysis in La Salle and Bureau counties and of five new cases in Macon county and vicinity, the two districts recently declared restricted, led the state board of health today to issue new and more stringent orders, chief of which is a prohibition against children under 12 years old attending either public, private or parochial schools in the restricted areas.

MEXICAN WOULD BEHEAD ANOTHER

Jim Fernandez Swings Razor on Gilbert Nunez in Moline Street and Almost Finishes Him.

ECHO OF CRACRAFT MURDER

Victim of Cutting Said to Have Accused His Assailant of Being Implicated in Case.

In an attempt made last evening in Moline by Jim Fernandez to decapitate Gilbert Nunez with a razor lies a second sequel to the murder several months ago in the Silvis yards of Nicholas Cracraft, an American, by a gang of Mexicans.

Nunez is in the city hospital with his throat cut, two gashes across his face and two shocking wounds on his head. Dr. H. A. Beam, attending physician, believes he will recover, however.

The attack on Nunez occurred on Third avenue and Twenty-third street Moline, at 5:55 last evening. A few minutes after the cutting, Fernandez was in the hands of the police.

An old and dull razor, with no handle, was the weapon used. Had it been sharp Nunez's head would nearly have been cut from his body.

Fernandez created a sensation at the hearing before Magistrate Frank Gustafson this morning when he said he knew who killed Cracraft. He refused to name the murderers, but said "one of them is in jail now."

Fernandez was himself named by certain other Mexicans, among them Nunez, as the murderer of the American. He was held in jail by county authorities for nearly a month, but was released when no evidence was uncovered that would definitely connect him with the murder.

Since his release he has been awaiting an opportunity to revenge himself upon Nunez, who had caused his arrest by declaring he was the murderer of the American.

Not Sorry for Act.

His opportunity came last evening when he met Nunez in Moline. A moment after they met Nunez was on the way to the hospital. It was at first reported he had been murdered, for his wounds presented such a shocking sight that witnesses supposed he had no chance to live. Fernandez, arraigned in court this morning with his shirt more red than white from his compatriot's blood, was not sorry.

"Did you cut Nunez?" questioned Magistrate Frank Gustafson.

"Sure I did," grinned Jim, or Juan, said to be his real name.

"What did you do it for?"

"He said I killed the American in Silvis."

"Did you kill the American?"

"Do you know who did?"

"No."

"Sure, I know. They all know in Silvis."

"Who killed him?"

"They have him in jail now."

Jim refused to give any name, however.

"Did you try to kill Nunez?"

"Sure, I did. I wanted to kill the greaser!"

Fernandez claims to be pure Mexican, while he says Nunez is a mixture of Spanish and Mexican. That accounts for his epithet "greaser," in referring to his compatriot.

Charged with assault with a deadly weapon, Fernandez was held to the grand jury under bonds of $2,000.

"Can you furnish $2,000 bail?" queried the magistrate.

"Who, me?" Jim roared with laughter. "I should say not. I haven't got any money."

Is Sent to Jail.

He was sent to the county jail to await action of the next grand jury.

The Cracraft case, which led to the cutting last evening, is well remembered throughout the quad-cities. Cracraft, an Iowan, stopped in Silvis on his way to Detroit via a freight train, and was entertained by a gang of Mexicans in one of their shacks near the Silvis yards. Later he was shot to death and robbed by members of this gang.

County authorities arrested half the Mexicans in this end of the county and it was given out that one of them had "squawked" and disclosed the name of the murderers.

A few days later Domingo Castro was murdered in East Moline. It developed that he had been beaten to death with a spiked club, or some similar weapon, and had then been thrown on the street car tracks to be run over by a street car, the murderers evidently hoping to conceal the fact that a crime had been committed.

Immediately after the murder of Castro it was given out that he was the man who had "squawked" in the Cracraft case. This was later denied flatly by State's Attorney Thompson, however.

Fernandez, who did the cutting last night, was one of the Mexicans arrested in connection with the Cracraft case, and at one time it was believed he was the actual murderer.

That Nunez had "squawked" did not leak out until today when Fernandez candidly admitted to Moline police that he had tried to kill Nunez because Nunez had tried to implicate him in the Cracraft murder.

NEW FIRE TRUCK FOR LOCAL DEPARTMENT

Purchase of a new Vello fire truck, cost of which will be $2,149, was authorized by the East Moline city council at a meeting last night. Action was taken by the aldermen after report of the committee of council members, appointed to investigate merits of various cars offered, had been given, together with a recommendation that the Vello be purchased. Body of the old fire wagon, which has served East Moline for several years, will be placed on the new truck.

Side walks on Seventeenth avenue, between Fourth and Fifth streets, will be raised to street level this fall. Street and alley committee members were authorized to have the work started at once. The sidewalks, which have been below the surface of the streets, have been a source of annoyance for some time.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Nora Moll, eldest daughter of Mrs. Alice Moll, 725 Fourteenth street, and Carl Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Erickson, 917 Nineteenth avenue, were quietly married at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Swedish Lutheran church, the Rev. A. F. Bergstrom performing the ceremony. Miss Edith Moll, sister of the bride, and Axel Erickson, cousin of the bridegroom, attended the young people. The bride wore a white tulle gown with georgette crepe bodice and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mr. Erickson has a position with the Vello Carriage company. The bridal couple departed on an afternoon train for a short visit with relatives and friends in Rockford and will be at home to their friends at 1556 Ninth street, after Sept. 15.

Miss Violet Swenson of Chicago is a guest at the J. E. Berndt home, where she will remain for a fortnight visiting relatives and friends. She arrived Tuesday, coming by automobile with Mr. and Mrs. Berndt and sons, Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roseman, who motored to Chicago for Labor day.

Swedish Lutheran mission society met in the church parlors yesterday afternoon when the regular devotional exercises incident to the meeting were followed by a social hour, with Mesdames Peter Nelson, school at Gov. Adolph Gustafson, entertaining and serving refreshments. There was a large attendance. Next hostesses will be Mesdames Charles Johnson, Charles Goodman and John Peterson.

Philanthropic board of the Woman's club met at the Lunch and Rest rooms yesterday with a fair attendance and reports and routine business took up the time of meeting.
